SOLICITOR

Alexandria Marcou

alexandria@lloydspr.com 0208 963 1050

Serious Violence | Regulatory Offences, Fraud & White Collar Crime | Theft | Burglary | Robbery

Biography

Alexandria joined Lloyds PR Solicitors in July 2017 and is a qualified court duty solicitor. She is responsible for the preparation of cases for trial, including both Magistrates and Crown Court cases. Alexandria is also a police station accredited representative who represents clients at the police station on a regular basis covering the full spectrum of criminal offences including large conspiracies, drug offences, robbery, burglary, serious violence, complex fraud, firearms, sexual offences and driving offences.

Qualifications

Memberships

- Criminal Law Solicitor's Association

Education

- Criminology and Psychology (1st class honours), Portsmouth University
- Graduate Diploma in Law, University of Westminster
- LPC, University of Westminster

Selected Cases (2)

REGULATORY OFFENCES, FRAUD & WHITE COLLAR CRIME — 2 cases

- R v F, St Albans Crown Court
- R v S&R, St Albans Magistrates Court