Biography

Anita joined Lloyds PR Solicitors as a Paralegal Apprentice in June 2025. Whilst studying for her Level 3 paralegal qualification with CILEX, she is gaining hands on experience actively supporting paralegals and senior solicitors on their Magistrates' Court cases. Alongside legal work, she occasionally assists in administrative tasks contributing to the efficient running of firm operations. Prior to this Anita volunteered at Ealing Advice Service, where she provided free legal advice to vulnerable individuals and developed a strong foundation in client care and legal research.
