PARALEGAL

Conor Lloyd

conor@lloydspr.com 02089631050

Biography

Conor joined Lloyds PR Solicitors in July 2025, he assists solicitors, barristers, and the partners of the firm in the preparation of their cases.

Conor is police station duty accredited, he handles a range of offences including complicated fraud matters, money laundering, violent offences such as GBH and murder, and serious sexual offences. He has also represented clients involved in serious drug supply and cultivation matters.

Conor has undertaken work on one of the biggest Crypto money laundering operations in the United Kingdom worth £15 billion pounds, he has also undertaken work on a murder case working alongside Kings Counsel.

Further than being at the police station, Conor prepares court bundles, liaises with clients at prisons or within our offices taking their instructions and prepares schedules for phone downloads. He also undertakes various administrative tasks in relation to the company's operations and client matters.

Prior to joining Lloyds PR Solicitors, Conor has had exposure to hundreds of highly valued complicated cases and also simple low-level cases working alongside some of the best barristers and solicitors in the country. Conor has previous experience working in criminal defence firms. Conor graduated from London Southbank University with a Business Management and Law degree with a grade at 2.1. He is currently in the preparation phase to take the SQE exams to qualify as a Solicitor in England and Wales. Conor is a very hard-working paralegal and appro

Qualifications

Languages

- Spanish (Advanced)