BARRISTER

Iraida Gladchi

iraida@lloydspr.com 0208 963 1050

Firearms | Serious Violence

Biography

Iraida joined Lloyds PR Solicitors in January 2021, having successfully completed the Bar Professional Training Course as a Middle Temple scholar. Iraida is responsible for the preparation of cases for trial in the M agistrates' C ourt and E xtradition D epartment. Before joining Lloyds PR Solicitors, Iraida obtained an LLM in Immigration Law by representing clients facing deportation by the Home Office. At university, Iraida was a part of the Innocence Project, conducting pro-bono work focusing on correcting miscarriages of justice. Iraida is a as a supervisor for the Urban Lawyers charity. She helped create a 10-week mentoring programme and a 13-week education programme for students in sixth form.â€¯

Qualifications

Memberships

- The Honourable Society of the Middle Temple – BPTC Scholar
- The Innocence Project – Cardiff University
- Urban Lawyers – Education Team
- Human Rights Lawyers Association

Languages

- Romanian
- Russian
- Spanish (Basic)
- Ukrainian (Basic)

Selected Cases (5)

FIREARMS — 1 case

- R v J, Guilford Magistrates' Court

SERIOUS VIOLENCE — 3 cases

- R v A, Chelmsford Youth Court
- R v F, Willesden Magistrates' Court
- R v R, Ealing Magistrates' Court

SEXUAL OFFENCES 1 case

- R v T, Westminster Magistrates' Court