PARALEGAL

Jumeirah Shabir

jumeirah@lloydspr.com 02089631050

Biography

Jumeirah is a paralegal in the Crown Court department assisting senior solicitors across a broad range of criminal offences including drug trafficking offences, serious violence and sexual offences. Jumeirah received her LLB (Hons) from the University of Hertfordshire. Before joining Lloyds PR, Jumeirah worked as a Family Law paralegal where she conducted detailed legal research and liaised with clients. Jumeirah's role allowed her to further develop her skills in client care and communication. Jumeirah understands the pressures clients face during legal proceedings, offering insight and support through all stages of the process.

Qualifications

Languages

- Fluent in Urdu and Pahari