

PARALEGAL

Liam Ruddy

liam@lloydspr.com 02089631050

Biography

Liam is a paralegal at Lloyds PR Solicitors, having joined the firm in January 2026. He works in the Crown Court Department, where he supports solicitors across a broad spectrum of serious criminal offences. Liam has previously worked as a paralegal in criminal defence and for the Crown Prosecution Service, as well as a frontline role at Canada's largest psychiatric hospital (CAMH). An aspiring Barrister, Liam holds an undergraduate degree in Politics from Toronto Metropolitan University, as well as an LLM in Law and an LLM in Legal Practice from BPP University. He has successfully completed the Bar Training Course and is currently working towards his police station accreditation.