Biography

Manmeet joined Lloyds PR in February 2025 as a solicitor in the Magistrates' Court team and will be commencing her training to qualify as a duty solicitor. She has gained diverse experience within the criminal justice system whilst working in the criminal defence and proceeds of crime departments at a reputed law firm in central London for nearly four years prior to joining this firm. Manmeet has experience in dealing with a spectrum of criminal offences in the Magistrates' Court and Crown Court, including complex fraud, drug offences, assault and sexual offences. Manmeet recognises the significant impact that criminal investigations and proceedings can have on a client's life, regardless of the severity of the allegations. As such, she adopts the same level of attention and strategic approach to all her cases.
