PARALEGAL

Marcus Andoh

marcus@lloydspr.com 02089631050

Biography

Marcus joined Lloyds PR as a Crown Court Paralegal in January 2025. He assists senior solicitors and barristers in the preparation of their cases. This has included working on sexual offence cases, as well as drug trafficking matters. Marcus also handles his own caseload which encompasses an array of offences. He acts for clients charged with serious sexual offences (including rape allegations involving children), serious violent offences and largescale cross-county drugs supply. Marcus holds both an LLB (Hons) from the University of Essex, and an LLM from the University of Westminster. Marcus has also completed his LPC, graduating in November 2024.